

21 December 1960

Vice Admiral B. L. Austin
President
Naval War College
Newport, Rhode Island

Dear Admiral Austin:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to confirm in writing the arrangements which have already been made with Colonel O'Neill of your staff for the CIA presentations at the Naval War College on Thursday, 19 January 1961.

Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick, CIA's Inspector General, will speak at the 11 o'clock session on the subject "The Role of Clandestine Services and the Military," and [REDACTED] will conduct the session at 2 o'clock on "CIA Planning in Support of Unified/Specified Commands," covering the roles, missions, capabilities, limitations and organization of CIA in support of Unified/Specified Commanders. Mr. Kirkpatrick and [REDACTED] will cover between them the implications of the latest DOD agreement and the relationship of CIA forces and unconventional warfare with the theater commander.

We are glad to put you in direct liaison with the above representatives. Mr. Kirkpatrick can be reached on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] on extension [REDACTED]

Sincerely yours,

MATTHEW BAIRD
Director of Training
